UD in the news Nov. 8-15

Entrepreneur listed our undergraduate entrepreneurship program among the best in the nation. Food Technology highlighted Lincoln Hill Gardens and the expertise of Diana Cuy Castellanos in health and sport science in a story about feeding global cities. ScienceDirect and Cosmopolitan Middle East also tapped faculty expertise for stories.

Regional outlets in New York, Vermont and Cincinnati also talked to faculty about a variety of topics.

Local media featured the University's work at The Hub at the Dayton Arcade, our Mass to honor veterans, a partnership between the School of Law and the Air Force Research Lab at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, and the winner of the first stage of the Flyer Pitch competition.
